TALES FROM IRELAND

Nederlands:

Een fluitsolo roept vanaf de eerste maten de Keltische sfeer op... Vervolgens zet het slagwerk een stuwend groove in welke ontstaat door een afwisselend gebruik van 6/8 en ¾ maat. Na dit thema te hebben uitgebouwd in verschillende groepen volgt een espressivo tenor solo welke het rustpunt vormt in deze compositie. Het slagwerk is tenslotte weer de basis van het laatste deel welke leidt naar een zinderend slot.

English:

A flute solo evokes the Celtic atmosphere from the first bars... Then the percussion section starts a thrusting groove that consists of 6/8 and ¾ bars. After having developed the theme in different sections, an espressivo tenor solo follows which brings some rest. The percussion section is then the basis again for the final part which leads to an impressive end.

Deutsch:

Die Verwendung einer Solo-Flöte ruft gleich in den ersten Takten keltische Atmosphäre hervor. Danach beginnt die Perkussion-Gruppe den Rhythmus und so fängt ein „Groove“ an bei dem abwechselnd 6/8 und ¾ Takte verwendet werden. Nach der Entwicklung des Themas in den verschiedenen Instrumentengruppen gibt es ein ausdrucksvolles Solo für Tenor, das einen Ruhemoment darstellt. Im letzten Teil nimmt das Schlagzeug seine dominante Rolle wieder ein und führt die Komposition zu einem fulminaten Finale.

Français:

Un solo de flûte évoque dès les premières mesures une atmosphère celtique... Puis la percussion active le rythme et entame un "groove" en utilisant en alternance les mesures 6/8 et ¾. Après le développement du thème dans les différents groupes d'instruments, il y a un solo expressif pour téno qui crée un moment de repos dans cette composition. La percussion reprend le rôle dominant et forme la base de la dernière partie qui se termine par un final éblouissant.
