CAMPINOS SCALABITANOS

N

Paarden en stieren hebben het landschap en de cultuur van Ribatejo (Portugal) sterk beïnvloed en hebben sterk bijgedragen tot het natuurlijke karakter van de Campino, de bewaker van de vlaktes en van de dieren die er rondzwerven. Het is ongetwijfeld één van de typische beelden van Santarem, Ribatejo. De pasodoble Campinos Scalabitanos is een huldebetoon aan deze traditie. Het stuk begint met indrukwekkende en kleurrijke akkoorden die de stieren uitbeelden waarna een leuke melodie volgt. Een Campino te paard bewaakt een kudde, wanneer plots een stier wegrent, maar de alerte Campino drijft hem terug naar de kudde. De Pasodoble eindigt met een Portugese mars met elementen van de stierengevechtmuziek, wat van Campinos Scalabitanos typische Portugese stieren-gevechtmuziek maakt.

E

Horses and bulls have transformed the landscape and culture of Ribatejo (Portugal) and created the natural character of the Campino, guardian of the flatlands and the animals that roam. It is, no doubt, one of the most typical characteristics of Santarem, Ribatejo. Campinos Scalabitanos is a pasodoble which pays a tribute to this tradition. It starts with impressive and colourful chords suggesting the bulls and then comes a gentle melody with a totally different character. A Campino on horseback watches the cattle and suddenly a bull runs away, but the Campino drives it back to the herd. The pasodoble concludes with a Portuguese march with taurine music characteristics turning Campinos Scalabitanos into typical Portuguese bullfighting music.

D

Pferde und Stiere haben die Landschaft und die Kultur von Ribatejo (Portugal) stark beeinflusst, und haben zum natürlichen Charakter des Campinos, des Wächters der Ebenen und der Tiere, beigetragen. Es ist ohne Zweifel eines der typischen Bilder von Santarem bei Ribatejo. Der Paso Doble „Campinos Scalabitanos“ ist eine Ehrung dieser Tradition. Das Stück beginnt mit imponierenden und farbreichen Akkorden die die Stiere darstellen; darauf folgt eine eingängige Melodie. Ein Campino zu Pferde bewacht seine Herde; plötzlich macht sich ein Stier davon, aber der alerte Campino treibt ihn zur Herde zurück. Der Paso Doble wird mit einem portugiesischen Marsch mit Elementen der Stierkampfmusik beendet und so wird Campinos Scalabitanos zur typischen portugiesischen Stierkampfmusik.

F

Les chevaux et les taureaux ont influencé le paysage et la culture de Ribatejo (Portugal) et ont fortement contribué au caractère naturel du Campino, gardien des plaines et des animaux qui y paissent. C'est, sans nul doute, l'une des images les plus typiques de Santarem, Ribatejo. Le pasodoble Campinos Scalabitanos est un hommage à cette tradition. Il commence par des accords très impressionnants qui évoquent les taureaux, puis une mélodie douce et agréable. Un cheval garde le troupeau lorsque soudain un taureau s'enfuit, mais le Campino le ramène à nouveau. Le pasodoble se termine par une marche portugaise caractéristique de la musique taurine, ce qui fait de Campinos Scalabitanos une musique typiquement portugaise.
