First Studies

According to the special directions provided throughout this edition by Simone Mantia to master accurate intonation, some positions must be slightly raised, which is indicated by a sharp symbol (#). Some are lowered, as indicated by the flat symbol (b). This process is to be used when near the respective intervals, instead of shifting distances:

The positions for trombone are shown above, and the fingering for valve instruments is shown below the notes.

1. A musical score for a brass instrument in B-flat major. It consists of two staves. The top staff shows a continuous sequence of notes starting from the 1st position. The bottom staff shows the corresponding fingering, with numbers indicating the fingers to be used for each note. The fingering includes various combinations of 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, with some notes requiring a 'tu' (tongue up) or 'tu' (tongue down).
