PETITE SUITE CLASSIQUE

English:

The Petite Suite Classique (Little Classical Suite) has three movements, which describe three quite different moods. The first movement is a martial statement, with a theme in three-quarter time that develops strong rhythmical motives. The second movement features a melody played by the euphoniums. In the middle there, a second theme extends and lengthens the first theme. This movement ends with lush harmonies. The final movement is full of joy, and the martial rhythm appears again. A small transition on the dominant creates a welcome tension. The conclusion is majestic and energetic. This composition is best-suited for youth bands and bands at a grade 2-3 level.

Remarks:

Take care to play the initial rhythm properly. Do not play the semiquavers too quickly. Mind the balance between trumpets and trombones at measure 21. Give the focus to the euphoniums at measure 50. The chords at measure 76 should be well in tune. French horns and euphoniums should be in the foreground at measure 105. Do not play the semiquavers with the saxophones and trumpets at measure 117 too quickly. Be steady with the quavers played by the woodwinds at measure 133.

Nederlands:

Deze Petite Suite Classique (Kleine Klassieke Suite) bestaat uit drie delen met elk een eigen karakter. Het eerste deel is een driekwartsmaat met ritmische patronen. In het tweede deel ligt het accent op een de melodie, gespeeld door de euphoniums. Dit deel eindigt met enkele mooie akkoorden. In het laatste deel wordt het driekwart ritme opnieuw gebruikt. Een kleine overgang bij de dominant in octaaf geeft een welkome spanning aan dit deel. Het slot is majestueus. Een compositie die uitermate geschikt is voor jeugdorkesten en orkesten uit de lagere afdelingen.

Opmerkingen:

Let in het begin goed op de ritmiek, speel de zestiende noten niet te snel. Extra attentie voor de balans tussen trompetten en trombones op maat 21. Zorg dat de euphoniums duidelijk aanwezig zijn op maat 50. Let vooral op de juistheid van de akkoorden op maat 76. De hoorns en euphoniums moeten op maat 105 duidelijk naar voren komen. Speel de zestiende noten bij saxofoons en trompetten op maat 117 niet te snel. Extra aandacht vanaf maat 133 in het houtregister op de juiste interpretatie en gelijkheid van de achtste noten.

Deutsch:

Die Petite Suite Classique (zu Deutsch, „Kleine klassische Suite“) besteht aus drei Teilen mit jeweils verschiedenem Charakter. Im ersten Teil steht ein feierlicher Charakter im Mittelpunkt, in dem das Thema im Dreivierteltakt wiedergegeben wird. Im zweiten Teil steht eine vom Euphonium gespielte Melodie im Zentrum. Eine Art Seitenthema dehnt im Mittelteil die ursprüngliche Idee weiter aus. Dieser Abschnitt wird mit reicher Harmonik beschlossen. Der letzte Teil der Suite hat erneut einen sehr freudigen und frischen Charakter. Der feierliche Gestus vom Beginn kommt erneut zur Geltung. Der Schluss ist majestätisch und energisch. Mit diesem Stück hat der Komponist ein geeignetes für Jugendorchester und Blasorchester der Unterstufen geschaffen.

Bemerkungen:

Achten Sie auf die Rhythmik am Anfang. Spielen Sie die Sechzehntelnoten nicht zu schnell. Achten Sie besonders auch auf die Balance zwischen Trompeten und Posaunen in Takt 21. Lassen Sie die Euphonien in Takt 50 sehr präsent zur Geltung kommen. Achten Sie außerdem besonders auf die Stimmung der Akkorde in Takt 76. Die Waldhörner und Euphonien sind zudem aufgefordert, in Takt 105 in den Vordergrund zu treten. Spielen Sie die Sechzehntelnoten bei den Saxophonen und Trompeten in Takt 117 nicht zu schnell. In Takt 133 ist es notwendig, auf die Gleichmäßigkeit der Achtelnoten Rücksicht zu nehmen.

Français:

La Petite Suite Classique se compose de 3 mouvements exploitant chacun un caractère particulier. Le 1er mouvement est une “élocution martiale” dont le thème en 3 temps développe des cellules rythmiques précises. Le 2ème mouvement met en exergue une mélodie présentée aux Euphoniums. Le milieu de ce mouvement présente un second thème qui prolonge l'esprit initial. Quelques accords généreux terminent ce mouvement. Le dernier mouvement est plein d'allégresse. Le rythme martial est à nouveau utilisé. Une petite transition sur la dominante octaviée donne à ce passage une tension la bienvenue. La conclusion est majestueuse et volontaire. Composition qui convient très bien aux orchestres de jeunes et aux orchestres des divisions inférieures.

Remarques :

Respectez rigoureusement la rythmique du début. Ne pas précipiter les double-croches. A la mesure 21, attention à l'équilibre des trompettes et trombones. Laissez exprimer les euphoniums à la mesure 50. Une attention particulière concernant la justesse des accords à la mesure 76. Mettre les cors et euphoniums en évidence à la mesure 105. Saxophones et trompettes, ne précipitez pas les double-croches à la mesure 117. A la mesure 133, les bois, veillez à la régularité des croches.
