PROGRAM NOTES

When he completed the score to his Romeo and Juliet Overture in 1869, Tchaikovsky was only 29, almost the same age Shakespeare was when he finished writing the play. It was the young composer's fourth published orchestral piece and stands out among his works as a sudden blaze of inspiration, revealing for the first time the unique genius that the young composer would become.

The overture begins with a peaceful hymn-like introduction, representing the kindly Friar Lawrence, friend and advisor to Romeo and Juliet. The peace is soon broken, however, by a fiery "Allegro" depicting the ancient feud between the Montagues and the Capulets. This leads into the famous love music of Romeo and Juliet. After a return to previous themes, a final coda is heard in which the love music is transformed into a tragic lament.

Please note: Our band and orchestra music is now being collated by an automatic high-speed system. The enclosed parts are now sorted by page count, rather than score order.

The musical score is arranged in a standard orchestral format. The woodwind section (Flute, Oboe, Clarinets I & II, Bassoon, Saxophone, Horns) and brass section (Trumpets I & II, Trombones, Tuba) are in the upper half. The percussion section (Timpani/Bells, Percussion) is below them. The string section (Violins I & II, Viola, Cello, String Bass) is in the lower half. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings. A large red watermark 'Preview Only' is overlaid diagonally across the page.
