About the Composer

Over The Waves (Sobre las Olas, in its original language) was written by a 20-year old unknown Mexican peasant composer named Juventino Rosas (1868-1894). Rosas was born into a poor but musical family. He learned to play the violin and performed as a child with his family band. After moving to Mexico City he soon began playing with some of the top bands and orchestras there.

In 1888 Rosas penned a waltz which would become internationally famous. The waltz-rage which had spread through Europe in the 1800's had reached Mexico by the latter years of the century. Rosas, who was deeply in debt at the time, sold the rights to his waltz to a publisher for a very small sum. Those rights would be worth a fortune as the fame of Over The Waves spread throughout the world. In his short 26-year life Rosas would experience everything from the depths of poverty to the height of fame.
