PROGRAM NOTES

This innovative piece will place your first-year percussion students in the spotlight. Faculty members, parents, and other students are given the opportunity to perform as members of the Basketball Percussion Section! This piece focuses on the first six notes students learn and includes optional choreography for the basketball stars.

NOTES TO THE CONDUCTOR

This piece offers a great opportunity to feature the all-stars in the back row, as well as a chance to invite faculty members, administrators, parents, or other students to perform in the Basketball Percussion Section. There is also optional choreography for the basketball section, which could add to the excitement. Feel free to add more percussion students to the percussion 3 part on other instruments available (concert toms, bongos, etc.)

Please note, the score does not show a key signature, but all accidentals are marked. The included educational packet has the main theme written without a key signature for all instruments but also includes a partial scale and composition exercise with the key signature.
